Hinga Bake,
Remember
all the good times we've had together this last summer. The U. G. M.
the State Line. Gee,
we really had the fun.
Best of luck to you and John. Don't be to hard on him. Loveya,
Gran.

Maia, think!
Just we are juniors, the
that we remember when we can't get you? I will I sure can't get you in we were so good. I would be good. I would be so those but you are different the way you are for what is your different
just as much as you are
just as much as you are

The Class of '57 has chosen . . . Maps our Theme. This symbolizing the continuous travel in education along life's busy road.

HECTOR COMMUNITY SCHOOLS - HECTOR, MINNESOTA

Mr. DELBERT JONES

DEDICATION

Mr. CHARLES ROEPKE

We, the class of '57 dedicate this yearbook to our class advisors, Mr. Delbert Jones and Mr. Charles Roepke.

They devoted much of their time for the benefit of our class projects. Through their combined efforts our class trip became a reality.

For these and for many of the other accomplishments throughout the year, we are very grateful to Mr. Jones and Mr. Roepke.

Administration

Congratulations to you, the graduating class of 1957. I sincerely hope each of you realize, to a great extent the fulfillment of your ambitions and dreams. It has been your privilege the past years to rear the benefits of rich heritage. The foundations of your house as a future citizen have been laid during these past twelve years. You must build from here. Utilize what you have learned to the best of your ability. Your tomorrows will include disappointments and failures but also moments of accomplishments and satisfactions. May each of you experience the satisfactions and rewards that result from honest and sincere effort.

SCHOOL BOARD - George Schmidt, Edward, L. Johnson, Reinhold Foesch, Roger Swanson, Supt. H. A. Schmidt, Dr. C. A. Anderson, Loren VanderVoort.

To the graduating class of 1957 we say, congratulations and we wish you have much success in the future. I hope that you have gotten more out of your twelve years in school than a mere accumulation of facts. It is of vital concern to you that you have learned the importance of fair play and that you have learned to defend and live by the principles that you know are right. It is important that you have learned to be honest with your fellow citizens but, most of all, that you be honest with yourself. If you have learned these things, then much success will be yours.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1953, fifty-four members of the class of '57 chose Marion Nelson as their leader, assisted by Judy Macik, Marciell Janke as secretary, and Ann Berry, Treasurer. Miss Jorgenson and Mr. Dietz were the Freshman advisors.

The Sophomore Class Officers: Karen Bargman and Marciell Janke acted under the direction of Mrs. Vikingson and Mr. Deitz.

Catherine Niles, President; Jerome Carlson, "veep"; Janice Jahnke, Secretary; and Roger Evenson, Treasurer; were the Junior executive slate. Council was given by Mrs. Rude and Mr. Roepke.

Their class play, "Clementine" was well given and well recieved. Other money-making activities, a beef dinner, candy sales, as well as the Junior-Senior Prom were a prelude to . . .

Senior year. August 31; Forty-six members of the class of '57 enrolled for their last year together. Catherine Niles held the reins, with Roger Everson second in command, Darryl Schaumberg recorder, and Jerome Carlson accountant.

Home-coming festivities, including Coronation, a Turkey Dinner, the class play, "Father Was a Housewife", and many other activities rounded out a full year.

Under their advisors, Mr. Jones and Mr. Roepke, the dreamed of "New York and Washington" trip became a reality and climaxed the class of '57s fellowship together while in school.

Juniors

The class of '58" started the year by electing their officers. Raymond Grundeman was elected president; Nellie Clark, vice-president; Karen Johnson, secretary; and Bruce Reuber, treasurer.

The first event of the year was Homecoming. The class was in charge of the parade. "You Are There; Renville's Last Stand," was the theme of our float which won first prize. We have had the honor of winning first prize four years in a row.

On November ninth and tenth our class presented our class play; "Come Out of the Closet." We were in charge of the annual Junior-Senior Prom held on the fourth of May.

Besides the fun of a successful year, we had bake sales, candy sales, sponsored dances, and served a beef dinner. The profit from these projects goes to our future trip east.

Sophomores

The Sophomore class started the year of 1956 with forty-seven members. Corrine Boboltz was elected president, Valerie Hanson, vice-president, Nancy Piehl, secretary, and Donald Suppes, treasurer. Our class advisers were Mrs. Jonason and Mr. Hage.

We lost two students during the year, Ronald Keller and Jimmy Precht, but we gained three; Joan Ehlers, Mary Ann Delong, and Armond Peterson.

The year began with Homecoming. The slogan for our float was "My Dogs Are Killing Him". We decorated the gymnasium in blue and white for the Homecoming Dance.

Our sophomore year has been a very enjoyable one and we hope the future is filled with the same.

Freshman

The sixty-four eager freshman started their high school days with the election of their class officers. They elected Jim Keltgen, president; Marcielle Malquist, vice president; Morris Torbert, secretary; and Karen Evenson, treasurer.

Miss Brewer and Mr. Miller were the class advisors.

The class enjoyed several successful activities during the year. They won second prize on their homecoming float, had two parties, and with their trip to Excelsior Amusement Park in May, was an exciting climax to the year.

"Who's Next"?

Hector's 19 game winning streak which extended over a period of three years, was finally ended by the Fairfax Eagles. The 20 to 0 loss opened the season for the youthful Bulldogs.

The following week, the Bulldogs bowed again, this time to the Panthers of Bird Island. The next game was with their old adversary Buffalo Lake, who became Hector's first victims of the season, losing to the Bulldogs 12 to 6. After a loss to a strong Stewart team, the Bulldogs swamped Renville 33 to 6 for a homecoming win. Following a heartbreaking 7 to 6 loss to the Danube Hawks, the boys from Hector ended the season in a blaze by toppling Sacred Heart 36 to 6 and blanking Brownton 26 to 0. This was good enough to land the Bulldogs a first division berth in the 212 Conference.

Hector had another year of turning out outstanding players when Gene Torbert and Norman Novotny were placed on the All-Conference Team.

The Bulldogs basketball team had a very impressive year on the hardwoods. After a fast start, winning six of the first seven games, they went into a slight slump winning only two out of the next four. To climax the remaining games Hector won the next five and lost the last two games to Brownston and Olivia.

In the district tournament the bulldogs were seeded sixth, but soon proved the odds-makers wrong by beating third seeded Hutchinson very decisively as Jeff Johnson showed a spectacular display of shooting; hitting for eleven buckets and twenty-two points. In semi-final play the underrated Bulldogs scored an exciting 64-61 victory over Norwood Central. The ever improving Bulldogs and the consistent play of Olivia proved to be quite a contest in the District 12 finals. As the game progressed Hector failed in its attempt to capture the coveted District 12 crown and lost 69-52. Thus ending a very successful season for the Bulldogs.

During the year, the Student Council worked on various projects. In the fall of the year, the Council directed Homecoming activities.

Later in the year, a dance, with proceeds going to the March of Dimes, was held in the Rec. Room.

On May 15, the third annual Student Government Day was successfully sponsored by the Council.

One of the chief projects of the year was the writing and adoption of a new constitution for the Council. At the close of the year an Awards Day was given for the student body.

The officers for the year '56-'57 were Karen Bargman, president; Lee Raitz, vice president; Marian Nelson, secretary; Wayne Duehn, treasurer.

Senior Class Play

On April 12 and 13 the seniors presented their play "Father was a Housewife," under the direction of Mr. Jones. The play was well received by the audience.

PLAY CAST; Kathryn Berry, Karen Johnson, Jaylene Haspert, Raymond Grundeman, George Beske, Jon Butler, Lyla Grams, Carmen Nicolai, Lee Raitz, Helen Zweig and under the direction of Mrs. Marion Evenson.

Junior Class Play

The play "Come Out of the Closet" was presented by the Junior class on November 10 and 11 under the direction of Mrs. Marion Evenson.

A suspense filled, but laugh provoking drama of three young girls and weird counterfeiter kept the audience rolling in the isles. The play was well received and was another in the line of success presented in Hector High School.

Homecoming

Queen Karen and King Gene

A huge bonfire, snake dance, and pep fest, held on Wednesday, October 5, began the 1956 Homecoming festivities.

The coronation ceremonies were held on Thursday evening. The reigning royalty, Karen Fredell and Don Hennessey, led the procession of king and queen candidates. The queen candidates were Marion Nelson, Catherine Ann Nilse, Kathleen Bargman, Karen Bargman, Lynette Arndt. The King Candidates were Wayne Duehn, Harold Swanson, Jerome Carlson, Robert Novotny, and Gene Torbert. Don Hennessey crowned the new king, Gene Torbert. King Gene read the proclamation naming Karen Bargman as queen and crowned her Queen Karen II.

Friday was the day of the Homecoming parade which was led by the High school band. The floats that followed stressed the idea of beating Renville in the evenings game. The Junior Class won the first place award.

The big football game was played against Renville and the bulldogs proved to be too much for the Indians, winning by a score of 33-6. After the game the dance was held in the gym.

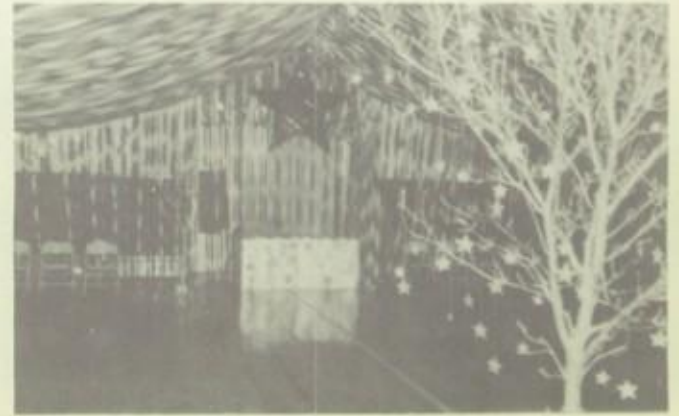

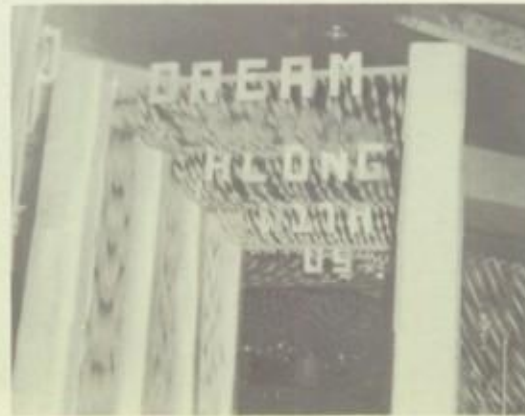

The entire Homecoming festivities proved to be very successful.

Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom

On May 4, 1957, the juniors and seniors were attired in their beautiful gowns and new suits and seated in the Twilight Room. An angel and harp hung in the background of the head table. After a delicious supper and wonderful program the juniors led the seniors in the grand march, played by the Star Dusters. Three shades of blue were used in decorating, which was draped across the ceiling and dropped to the floor. Over the punch bowl hung a huge blue star which lit up every ten seconds. In the center of the floor stood a large silver tree. From the bottom of the tree fumes from the dry ice made a cloudy atmosphere. Throughout the evening punch and dancing was enjoyed. The prom was a success and enjoyed by all.

Student Teachers

Student Government Day

On May 5 the third annual Student Government Day was held; its purpose being to give the students an opportunity to take complete charge of our school system.

The school board, composed of members of the Student Council, selected the student teachers, administration, janitors, and cooks.

The day was a complete success as the students cooperated with their fellow students who composed the body of the enlarged school system.

Student Administration

All roads in high school lead to the final Baccalaureate service and Commencement exercise. Class trip affords post-graduate education. The road of education is never ending.

Baccalaureate

The Fifty-eight graduating class of Hector Community Schools marched in to the playing of Lois Anderson.

The Invocation, the Sermon, "The Fear of the Lord is the Beginning of Wisdom", and the Benediction was given by Rev. P.W. Pilgrim, Pastor of the American Lutheran Church of Hector.

The music included two numbers "Holy, Holy, Holy", and "Come Thou Holy Spirit", sung by the High School Chorus, and two numbers "God of Our Fathers", and "Beautiful Savior", sung by the audience.

The Recessional music brought to a close the first big event of Graduation Week.

Commencement

At 8:00 P.M. on Thursday, May 23, 1957 the seniors marched into the auditorium to the processional played by the band. Each graduate wore a royal-blue cap and gown with a red rose.

Karen Bargman delivered the Salutatory address and Darryl Schaumburg gave the Valedictory address.

The speaker, Reverend Doctor Reuben Youngdahl, spoke on the subject "The Best Is Yet To Come".

The musical presentations included a selection by the band plus a number sung by the seniors who were members of the chorus the past year.

Finally the moment arrived that everyone had waited for--the awarding of diplomas.

With this, our High School days are ended but the challenges of life are just beginning.

The senior class of 1957 boarded the train at the Hector depot June 1st for the ninth annual tour of Washington D.C. and New York City.

Arriving in Washington Sunday morning June second, they visited the Washington Monument and viewed the beautiful city from its observation point. Other interesting places they visited while in Washington were the Capitol, White House, Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the Smithsonian Institute, Archives building, and the National Gallery of Art.

On Tuesday afternoon June fourth, the group left for New York City. They enjoyed the magnificent skyline of the city upon their arrival. A well guided, all day tour of Manhattan was scheduled for the following day. The tour included a trip through the United Nations building, an excursion to the Statue of Liberty, a climb to the top of the Empire State building, a glance down Park Avenue, and many other interesting sights.

The last morning in New York was spent shopping by the majority of the group. Others caught up on much-needed sleep.

A full-packed week of tours, fun, and excitement soon came to an end. The group of seniors and their chaperones returned home June seventh after a very enjoyable seven days.

Hi there — I can't think of all, of much to write but I'm sure of last night if you weren't home, and I had old have done last night if you weren't home, and I'm sure of grateful to you for let-
